Dedication

As we reflect on our year of school activities, we are grateful not only for our pleasures and accomplishments, but for the stimulating personalities who have indelibly etched our lives with their influences. Foremost among these is our former classmate, whose conscientious industry, enduring patience, and undying hope have inspired us to greater effort. To these qualities of life that were the contribution of Judy Browand we reverently dedicate this annual.

School Calendar

September	8	1959-60 School Year starts Oh, boy! Let's get at those books! There'll probably be some real surprises this year
	11	1959 Football Preview at South Amherst
	18	First football game at Waynedale You can't say we didn't try!
	25	First victory of the season, South Amherst Yea, team!
October	2	Homecoming game with Firelands
	2	Homecoming Dance after the game Ah! Crown that queen! Sherrill and her Court were really royal "Autumn Leaves" was our theme
	9	Football game at Avon
	16	Football game with Brookside here
	23	Buckeye at Columbia
	29	Parents Night Buckeye 20, LaGrange 6 Hi, Pop! Band and team parents are honored guests
November	6	Buckeye against Highland
	13	Final football game, Brunswick at Buckeye Oh, well!
	16	1959 Football Banquet Lee Tressel of Baldwin Wallace was the speaker to inspire parents, teammates and fans
	21	Basketball Preview at Medina
	27	First basketball game, Buckeyevs. Black River Not a good start for us, but we'll learn!
December	1	Buckeye defeats Columbia This was our first victory an upset, so they said
	4	Highland at Buckeye This was a close game, but we didn't enjoy losing
	11	Mogadore at Buckeye
	12	Buckeye against Boston
	18	Buckeye 84, Lodi 76 We really enjoyed this one!
	19	Buckeye at Lorain St. Mary's
	22	Buckeye defeats LeRoy We liked this one, too---every minute of it
	28	Medina Holiday Tournament
	29	Medina Holiday Tournament
January	5	Seville at Buckeye
	8	Brunswick against Buckeye
	15	Black River vs. Buckeye
	22	Buckeye goes to Highland
	22	First semester ends There were a lot of disappointed students and disgusted teachers, but next semester will set everything aright!
	26	Brunswick at Buckeye
	29	Buckeye against Lodi
February	5	Buckeye at LeRoy We won the game, a good one, 61-59
	12	Last league game Buckeye vs. Seville We were "saving" ourselves for the tournament!
	13	Junior class valentine dance "Specs" Howard spun some good records for a good evening of fun
	19	Medina County Basketball Tournament Our first game was our last; we lost to ol' Seville, 61-59
	24	Medina County Basketball Tournament Lodi upsets Black River
	25	Medina County Basketball Tournament Seville and Lodi contended for the title, with Seville winning 67-64
March	5	District solo contest at Kent State As usual, Buckeye holds its own in music circles
April	2	Junior "Club 61" dance This was a real night-club atmosphere, enjoyed by all
	8	All-county music festival Our location in the middle of the county, lets us be host to many activities Maybe it accounts for our high musical ratings, too
	9	Regional music festival
	14	Dramatics production Held at Highland this year, it gave us a chance to show off our good actors before our friendly-enemies
	15	Dramatics production
	25	Senior class trip We really enjoyed these days Seniors liked being gone real gone and the rest of us enjoyed the peace and quiet
	26	Senior class trip
	27	Senior class trip
May	11	Junior-Senior banquet What a feast, and what fun--juniors and seniors together for the last time
	14	Junior-Senior prom this was our first prom to be held at the school building, and those juniors really know how to entertain!
	31	Commencement Goodby, seniors, we wish each of you success and happiness in the field of your choice
June	1	Final Exams
	2	Final Exams
	2	Last day of school We were right! There were some real surprises this year.

Class Will

I, Marge Foecking, will my height to Alice Hinkel.

I, Madeline Frate, will my old clarinet to Bill Kick, and my craziness to Mary Ann Motznik.

I, Virginia Harrison, will my baton to Diane, Donna and Winona. It is to be divided among them equally.

I, Jeanette Hibler, will my lipstick. I've never used it anyway. First come, first serve.

I, Karen Kramer, will my glasses to Douglas Lewis.

I, Diane Johnson, will to my brother Eddie my ability to look "innocent."

I, Alan Keller, will to anyone who can outwit Mr. Beard my ability to crowd into lunch line.

I, Harriet Kemp, will to Jean Ingram some fifty-odd pounds, which I am not using anyway.

I, Bob Kiley, will Betty to anyone who is foolish enough to try to take her away from me.

I, Dave Kiley, will to a shutter fan my old box camera and some used film. The shutter doesn't work, and the lens is cracked.

I, Margaret Kravanya, will my pony tail to Janice Buddie and my old play books to Glenn Campion.

I, George Lewis, will one hundred feet of rubber hose which was "borrowed" from the chemistry lab.

I, Brooke Maudsley, will to Carol Marcellus my list of "party people".... you can have it.

I, Jim Meneely, will to Pat Frank my used (they're almost new) pencils.

I, Margaret Mirka, will my luck at winning a prize at the end of the magazine campaign to any student deserving of that honor.

I, Carol Nichols, will to Mary Nilges my secretary job for Mr. Sbatella.

I, Betty Nichols, will to Ron French my ability to chew gum in third period study hall. I hope someone in there next year will keep him well supplied.

I, Joanne Popa, will to Carol Marcellus my "popularity" with the boys at Buckeye. Good luck, Carol.

I, Sandra Scheafer, will to Kris Timberlake and Lola Singer my talking ability during study halls. There's enough for both of them.

I, Sandi Scherler, will my fire baton to anyone who can make both ends stay lit.

I, Sue Seeley, will my twin sisters to the junior boys.

I, Jane Smyth, will to any girl who wants a change of scenery my ability to go with Lodi guys.

I, Janet Bartter, will to Kent Stone the job of "head drummer." This entitles you to talk all you want when you're supposed to be playing. I did!

I, Don Beard, will the space I took up, because it was wasted on me, anyway.

I, Wilma Beran, will my books, which I tried to use.

I, Mary Bihn, will to Mary Zorn my ambition to be a teacher and to Jimmy Walling my ability to get along with Mr. Sbatella in seventh period study hall.

I, Frances Brophy, will to Karen Haas my ability to talk and eat candy in study hall.

I, Joyce Bunch, will to Sue Crabtree my Southern accent.

I, Gerry Canfield, will to Glenn Campion my eighth period English class. Carry on, Glenn.

I, Ruth Claycomb, will to anyone who wants to be yelled at by Mrs. Leach my ability to goof in Shorthand and Office Practice class.

I, Pat Cogar, will to Marilyn Disch my naturally blond hair.

I, Pat Dunkle, will my brother to all his admirers, and my quiet ways to Mike Frank.

I, Donna Fekete, will my 4'11" height to Sharon Miller, and my old science projects to Mary Nilges.

I, Richard Stentz, will to anyone who can shoot straight my rubber band, used for shooting paper wads.

I, Nancy Walling, will to Jon Steingass my ability to study during ninth period study halls.

I, Madlyn Weigel, will my shorthand desk to Karen Haas.

I, Sherrill Smith, will to Tim Steingass my ability to have fun on a hayride.

I, Pat Prechtel, will my green shoes to anyone bold enough to wear them.

I, Cliff Marcellus, will to Kent Stone my ability to use a line.

Class Prophecy

"Date June, 1970. Place, Cleveland-Time, 8:00 P.M."

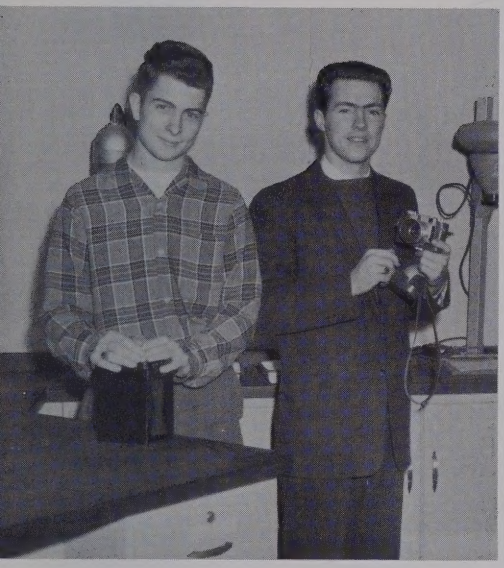
Yes, that's what the invitation said. This was to be our first class reunion since we graduated in 1960. It surely was going to be good to see all my classmates again.

Jeanette and Madeline were the first to come. I was surprised that they hadn't changed much, for a missionary and her nurse must have been kept very busy working with the natives. Just as we were saying our hellos, Karen, Nancy, and Pat arrived. Karen is doing fine as a model. Nancy and Pat have jobs in rival offices, and it's good to see that it hasn't affected their friendship. The missile plant outside of town houses quite a few of our friends. There Margaret, George, Jim, and Gerry, are working on the latest V-10 rocket. Alan has a test flight in the plant's newest jet. Even Margaret and Betty have gotten in on the "act," Margaret is in the accounting department, and Betty is one of the secretaries. There's Bob. It's a wonder that he can smile yet; he's a successful mortician.

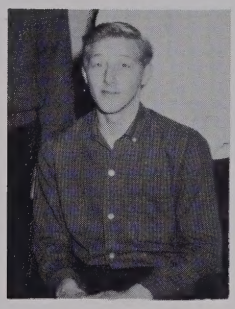
Over there Brooke is the stewardess on the plane that's bringing Janet, Don and Virginia in from New York City. Janet and Don are going to open soon in a new broadway musical. I hear that Virginia had quite a little bit to do with designing the scenery for it. By the way, did you hear Dave last Sunday? He's turned out to be a fine minister. Did you see Jane's new hair-do? I guess Sandi and Pat have been experimenting in their spare time aboard ship. They have their own beauty shop on ship now, and between them they keep Jane looking like a social should. Mary and Dianne share an apartment together. With both of them teaching at the same school, it sure is convenient. Here comes Dick. Did you know that he has his own accounting firm? He has also taken quite a few of our friends. Joyce, Ruth, Wilma, and Madlyn are secretaries, and Margery operated his comptometer. In a way, I wish somebody would get sick. I'm just dying to find out what kind of nurses Sandy, Carol, and Donna are!

Why aren't you here? Didn't you get your invitations?

Busy Seniors

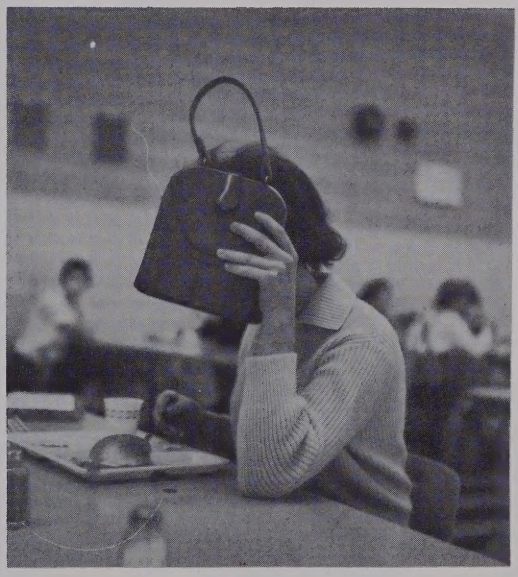


What's YOUR hobby?

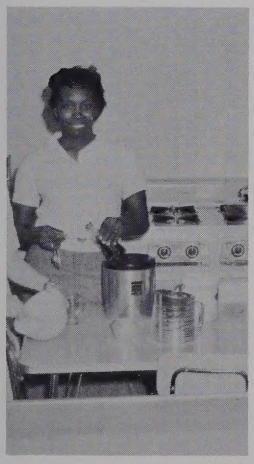


I wanna be loved.

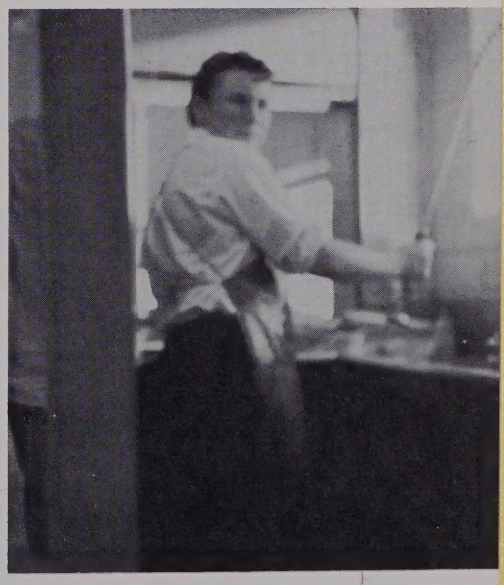
A sober note



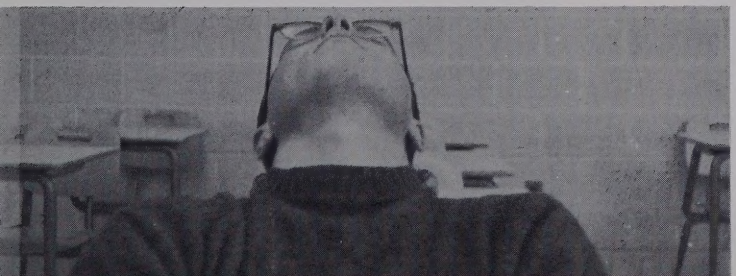
Peek, Virginia!



Make mine vanilla!



Let's cancel the trip.



Two holes in one!

Uhg!

"Et tu Brute"

Wanted

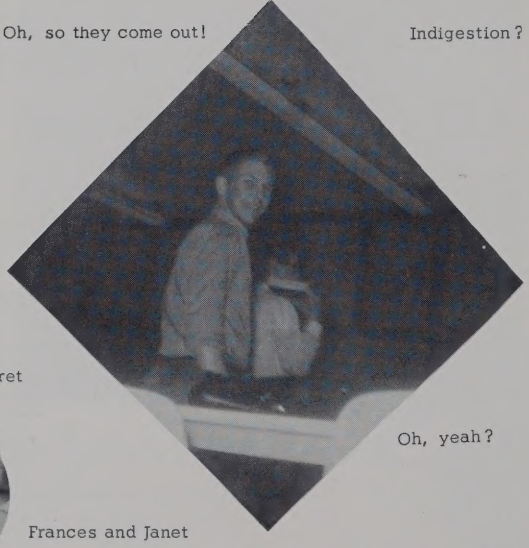
If only it'd run.

Wilma

"Eek"

Smile, Tom

Oh, so they come out!



Oh, yeah?

Indigestion?

Joyce and Margaret

Frances and Janet

"Don't be nervous, class!"

Mary and Loma

Where've you been, Pat?

Unconcerned

The Junior Class has been very active the past year. In September the class rings were selected and ordered. In November the class sponsored a teacher's dinner for all teachers in the district. A Sweethearts Dance was sponsored in February and in March a Club "61" Dance was held. The Junior-Senior Prom was the biggest event of the year and this too was sponsored by the Juniors. It was held in the Buckeye gym and proved to be a great success. It was a busy year for the Juniors and next year will prove to be likewise.

National Honor Society

The Buckeye chapter of the National Honor Society has been in existence since 1952. The purpose of the Society is to stimulate high scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service and worthy character of the students in the secondary schools of this county. Members must be outstanding in scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The members, who are juniors and seniors, are chosen by the entire faculty. The president is Madeline Frate, the vice-president is Mary Bihn, and the secretary is Margaret Kravanya. Mrs. D'Amico is advisor and treasurer. New members were admitted twice this year. The Society's only activity is the Awards Assembly. At this assembly students are given recognition for outstanding achievements during the year.

STANDING: Jon Steingass, Bob Kiley, Kent Stone, Steve Dina, Jim Buddie. SEATED: Alice Hinkle, Sandy Abram, Janice Buddie, Madeline Frate, Donna Seeley, Carol Marcellus. ABSENT: Bob Neumeyer.

The purposes of the Student Council: to promote school spirit and encourage student participation in all school activities; to create and uphold a spirit of understanding and co-operation between students, faculty, and administration; to hold meetings in which the needs and problems of the high school and its students are properly considered; to aid in the internal administration of the school, as in giving advice to any club or social activity; to uphold sentiments of law, order, and honor in relationship to the school. The officers are: Bob Kiley, president; Kent Stone, vice-president; Madeline Frate, secretary; and Jim Buddie, treasurer. Mr. Salisbury is advisor. This year the Council has aided in opening and closing assemblies. It has promoted school spirit by encouraging "Car Caravans" for football and basketball games. The Council is also preparing a student handbook. "

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in secondary schools. The first aim of the society is to create an active and intelligent interest in all types of theater activities. The second aim is to develop an appreciation of good theater, motion pictures, radio, and television; while the third aim is to improve the quality of the work of the students, as well as to give them a worthwhile leisure-time activity. Other goals of Thespians would create a spirit of co-operation and an understanding among fellow students that will broaden the cultural growth of each. Officers of the National Thespian Society: Margaret Kravanya, president; Sherrill Smith, vice-president; Madeline Frate, secretary; Mary Zorn, treasurer; Janice Buddie, record clerk; and Mrs. Wolfe, who is the advisor.

Seniors Hold Hope For 'DC'

The Seniors, working with determination toward their goal of $3500, have been quite busy lately. On Friday and Saturday, November 27 and 28, they sponsored a paper drive which was a huge success. As a result, another drive was scheduled for December 12.

From The Principal's Desk

To whom does Buckeye High School belong? The teachers? The students? The custodians? The administrators? The school board members? The answer, of course, is that it "belongs" to no individual or any one group of individuals, because it beloongs to all of us. Buckeye belongs to every student, every teacher; it belongs to the men on the board of education, to the men who administer it, to the men ... it, and to all of the ... in this school dis-

English Clubs Still Active; Choose Motto

The Improvers of English have chosen "English is our Tomorrow" as their club motto. New officers are elected each month. December's are: Wesley Hornung, President, Diane Neilson—V. President, Roger Hathaway—Secretary, and Gayle Diosy—Treasurer. The Program Committee selects an interesting and educational topic for each meeting.

"Don't say what you think, think what you say" is the Ain't Gonna Say Ain't Club's new motto. Officers for December are: Jim Walling, Nancy Motznik, Lindsey Kerrison and Norm Broadsworth.

Both clubs are responsible for the colorful posters in Mr. Beard's room.

Our Music Department

The marching band made its debut at the South Amherst game; and its fifty-four members, including junior high students, did much to add spirit to the whole football season. Then, putting away their marching spats, they swung into concert season. The Christmas concert was their first, presented in co-operation with the vocal groups. Band members were also kept busy preparing for the annual county, district, and regional music contests, where each ensemble and soloist hoped to capture a superior rating. Their hopes were materialized, for they won several of the coveted "ones." They finished their busy season with their spring concert.

Our forty-voice choir was proud and resplendent in their new robes, which were worn for the first time at the Christmas concert. The beige gowns with their brown satin stoles were purchased with music funds which were augmented by the generous contributions of the P.T.A. Finishing the program on a sweet note, they turned their attention to the coming annual music contests. Mrs. Johnson was elated to have all groups obtain a "superior" in county competition, and two to win at the district contest, giving them opportunity to compete in the regional.

A satisfying, eventful year was experienced by teachers and students alike.
